At Your Request
Web Site Architecture/Design Consultant/Director of Development
Jan. '98

OBJECTIVES ⊙

The only objective of At Your Request was to create a truly unique web site. The team was given free rein to create as they wished.

SOLUTION ⊙

The goal was to ignore all convention navigational icons while creating a simple and logical way to navigate the site. The result defined "At your Request" as a creative company with new ways of finding solutions for their clients.
